

Marketing Intern

Arise Africa is searching for a Marketing Intern to join our team in Fort Worth, TX in a part time role this Spring.

THE ROLE

Arise Africa is a nonprofit organization headquartered in Fort Worth, TX, USA operating in Lusaka, Zambia. Our mission is to serve the children of Zambia who are suffering from economic, physical, and spiritual poverty. We achieve this through a Christ-centered approach involving full-time care, education, discipleship, and feeding programs. With over six hundred students in our program, our team of fifty-four Zambians in Lusaka operate three schools, a resource center, and two homes. In the United States our team of five fundraises over two million every year.

Arise Africa is looking to take on a Marketing Intern to assist our marketing department. This individual, based in the DFW area, will work with the Director of Marketing and Communications to take on either graphic design projects, operate our Instagram, identify potential marketing opportunities, and/or help manage our website. The candidate should be proficient in Adobe Illustrator and InDesign. This is a hybrid position with some remote work permitted. The target hours for this position are 10+ a week and is an unpaid internship.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

Arise Africa is a Christ-centered ministry. Candidates should have a personal relationship with Jesus and align with Arise Africa's Christian values.

The candidate will work closely with our Director of Marketing and Communication and should be able to manage deadlines, create high quality work within our brand, and ideally is detail oriented.

Being a small nonprofit, applicants must be flexible team players, approaching menial tasks or work outside of the scope of their job positively as an opportunity to contribute to the larger organizational mission.

For more information or to receive an application, please email the Director of Marketing and Communications at marykendall@ariseafrica.org
